Edinburgh's Radisson Blu Hotel has revealed its new look after a £12million upgrade. All 238 rooms and public areas at the Royal Mile property have had a makeover, including the Itchycoo Bar and restaurant.

The rooms also get media hubs and faster free wi-fi connections. Rates start at £120 a night. radissonblu.com

■ Reykjavik's new Canopy Hotel - a short walk from the restaurants and bars of Laugavegur Street - will start accepting reservations from mid-July.

It's the first opening for the lifestyle brand by Hilton and aims to offer a "simple, personal, positive" experience. Canopy's added value includes a complimentary breakfast delivered to the room or to go, and a welcome gift from the neighbourhood. canopy3.hilton.com

■ A new Travelodge has opened near the Bicester Village outlet shopping centre in Oxfordshire. The centre is the second biggest UK attraction after Buckingham Palace for Chinese visitors and the hotel team is being taught key welcome phrases in Mandarin, along with oriental etiquette.

Bicester Village attracts six million visitors annually, with more than half from China, and since the 53-room hotel opened, Travelodge has had a 61% increase in web traffic from China.

Rooms start at £40 a night in an opening offer. travelodge.co.uk
